LAST REFERENCE.

Rubkari Letter No. 84 dated 18th February 1904 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore.

One Ramayyiswara petitioned that a mantap near Bastihalli lying unused & being given to him to construct (out of its materials) a Yogi mantap on the Baby Hills. In the mahazar taken by the Shetkdar on 4.1.04 from the villagers, it is seen that it is situated on S. N. 63 of the village, and that it is not useful either to the villagers or to travellers and that the villagers have no objection to its being given to the Yogi. The Amildar has supported the petitioner's prayer. The Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Taluk recommended that the mantap may be given away by auction.
